

TAG HEUER CARRERA

CHRONOGRAPH
YEAR OF THE RABBIT

COMMEMORATING THE YEAR OF WITS, PRUDENCE AND SKILL

Ahead of the Lunar New Year, Swiss luxury watchmaker TAG Heuer is releasing a dedicated timepiece commemorating the year of the rabbit. Limited to only 500 pieces, the stunning black, red and golden chronograph is refined yet sporty, and infused with delicate symbols of the cunning and cute animal.

KEY FEATURES

YEAR OF THE RABBIT

A truly unique timepiece to mark the new year, the TAG Heuer Carrera Chronograph Year of the Rabbit exemplifies the brand's unmatched creativity, craftsmanship and watchmaking expertise. Without losing sight of its motorsport heritage, the iconic chronograph takes on new and meaningful symbolism to bring good fortune and cleverness to its wearer.

DIAL

With its balanced tricompass layout, the chronograph introduces a never-seen-before black dial with printed lines representing a rabbit's soft fur, which bring texture and depth to the exclusive model. The chronograph sub-counters at 3, 6 and 9 o'clock are « azuré », with their structured concentric lines contrasting against the gentle waves of the background.

CASEBACK

The caseback design, known only to the wearer, is fully customized to reveal a printed red rabbit figure centered on the sapphire glass. Around it are special engravings to indicate the watch's limited release, "One of 500" and "Limited Edition". The watch's movement, the Calibre Heuer 02, is visible through this stunning case back.

BRACELET

The strap is made of smooth black calfskin with contrasting beige stitching, in harmonious continuity with the dial's rose gold features.

SUPER-LUMINOVA®

The indexes and hours and minutes hands are 18K 5N rose gold plated and covered with sophisticated dark red lacquer as well as white Super-Luminova®
